Research Note

Then he disappears after the 1870 census but now it looks like he may have remarried and moved to Little Black, Randolph County, Arkansas, United States if he is one and the same man. Then he "pops up" alone again in Washington County, Missouri to marry Frances "Fannie" Minerva (PRATT) by 1885.

1885 Marriage of Jackman Whiteside and Frances "Fannie" Minerva (PRATT) daughter of Alexander "Alex" R. & Mary (KIMBERLIN) Pratt

1885 Childbirth of daughter; Bertha Ann (WHITESIDE)

Bertha Ann (WHITESIDE) was born in Johnson Township, Washington County, Missouri, United States on 6 April 1885.

1887 Childbirth of daughter; Mary (WHITESIDE)

Mary (WHITESIDE) was born in Johnson Township, Washington County, Missouri, United States in July 1887.

1886-1887 Death or Divorce of Jackman Whiteside

Jackman Whiteside must have died between 1886-1887. His youngest daughter, Mary (WHITESIDE) was born July 1887. I checked the divorce records in Washington County from 1884-1888 and could not find any divorce papers. Checking the local newspapers at that time should reveal his death or news that he had left the area abandoning his family. Since Fannie remarried in 1888 would indicate she was either a widow or seperated or divorced.

Research Note

Jackman Whiteside(s) is a man of conflicting unfortunate circumstances. Born circa 1836 in Waterloo Precinct, Monroe County, Illinois, United States son of James & Dorothy Eleanor (JOHNSTON) Whiteside. Supposedly married 1st spouse Melica [Melissa] (MODGLIN) in 1863 may have had a daughter could have move to near Glendale Post Office, Township 13 Range 5, Pope County, Illinois, United States by the 1870 census.

He disappears until what may have been another marriage living in Little Black, Randolph County, Arkansas, United States by the 1880 with a large family.

By 1885 he marries Frances "Fannie" Minerva (PRATT) daughter of Alexander "Alex" R. & Mary (KIMBERLIN) Pratt in Washington County, Missouri. Has 2 daughters, and then he pulls a disappearing act again maybe a death or separation or divorce. I give you what I do know so you will have at least a foundation to begin your research.

I suggest you investigate his marriage to Melissa (MODGLIN) and try to find out what happened to her and her parents. Follow the trail by tracking their daughter; Ida and see what happened to her. Check the Pope County, Illinois divorce records to see if they divorced or he abandoned them.

Then you need to investigate the data in the 1880 census to determine where and when he married Arabel born in Arkansas. Also, follow the children to see if any of them remained near their mother after this Jackman Whiteside disappears. The 1880 census shows the oldest son William as 6 years old so Jackman and Arabel could have been married 1872-1873. Be sure to check the court records for a divorce or separation before 1885. With 2 children from the 1880 census try to find out what happened to them.

Then our subject of interest shows up in Washington County, Missouri and marries Frances "Fannie" Minerva (PRATT) by 1885. Through my years of research, I have found many families moved from Waterloo, Illinois area to the Crawford and Washington County area of Missouri. So, Jackman may have gone to Missouri to visit relatives thereby meeting Frances. Remember the Brewer family of the 1850 census? They moved to Washington and Crawford Counties.

Jackman and Frances had two daughters; Bertha Ann (WHITESIDE) 1885 and Mary (WHITESIDE) 1887 born in Johnson Township, Washington County, Missouri, United States. Then he disappears.

I checked the divorce records in Washington County and found no references. What is very peculiar is what happened after Jackman disappeared.

Frances "Fannie" Minerva (PRATT) Whiteside marries David McDonald Campbell son of Joseph & Milbury "Milly" (NORRIS) Campbell in 1888.

If Fannie had not divorced Jackman then the only way to marry David Campbell would have been to get a court order releasing her from their marriage or Jackman Whiteside had died releasing her to remarry. In any case, Fannie allowed David Campbell to change Jackman's daughter's surname to Campbell, which was customary when a widow remarried.

There such a stigmatism against women who were divorced or separated they would claim to be a widow in order to date proper suitors. Therefore, if Fannie claimed to be a widow when in fact Jackman abandoned them, then as a widow she could probably remarry, which she did.

If Jackman had died during their marriage, then there was nothing dishonorable in keeping his daughter's birth surname...Whiteside but she allowed Campbell to change their birth surname and they went by Campbell until they were married.

Consequently checking the court records for references to the disposition of Jackman Whiteside would be vital to your research. Also, checking the newspapers from 1885-1888 concerning information about Jackman Whiteside might be helpful. I would not be surprised to find some legal entanglement with Jackman Whiteside forcing him to continually hide from the authorities.

Remember, the Jackman Whiteside in the 1870 census may not be our guy, same goes for the 1880 census but more research is needed to discover what happened to him and I feel the deed, court records and newspapers in Washington County, Missouri may hold the answers. A Little Something About Your Author.....

Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I.

At the age of 19, Mr. Pratt embarked on a career in law enforcement. This experience gave him training in detective and investigative skills. Little did Mr. Pratt know, how useful these skills would be in the field of genealogy.

Floyd started his family research career in 1975 after becoming a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. His first calling as a new member was to serve in the newly created genealogical department or known today as the Family History Center in the Springfield, Missouri ward. This two-year calling gave Mr. Pratt a tremendous amount of experience helping others to research their families.

In fact, he felt family research came easy and required little effort on his part. In reality, years of reading and studying increased his expertise and he made it look easy to others. Over the course of several years, Mr. Pratt was asked by his church to instruct several family history courses. This experience established a deep profound love for family and ancestors. It was not uncommon for Mr. Pratt to spend 4 to 8 hours a day researching and compiling family histories in addition to his duties, as an entrepreneur in the insurance business.

The first major achievement for Mr. Pratt was a breakthrough on his Pratt family back to the early 1800's. Due to confusion with Pratt ancestors and not satisfied with just the direct line research, Mr. Pratt branched out to research all connected lines and allied families.

This dedication led to 50,000 individuals in his database and has achieved expert status for Mr. Pratt on the families of middle and eastern Missouri, eastern and western Tennessee and central North Carolina.

Concerning Mr. Pratt's style of research, he is a strong supporter of the "hands on" approach. When he took family vacations, they usually went to libraries, cemeteries, courthouses, National Archive centers, and visited family members in various states. He attended family reunions and obtained his material from the actual sources when possible.

Being a researcher of the highest degree, in 1991, Mr. Pratt created  Pratt Publications.

He began to offer to the public, a series of books titled, Pratt Progenitor Papers. This series of volumes are a collection of legal documents, stories, pictures and historical presentations concerning the families of Missouri, Tennessee and North Carolina.

The first three Volumes were released to the public in 1991 and were issued to 18 different libraries including the Library of Congress and the St. Louis Public Library. The next 11 volumes were sent to the Salt Lake Genealogical Library with 60 volumes scheduled for publication.

In 1996, Mr. Pratt created the  Genealogical Institute to further the education of serious researchers.

A Little Something About Your Author.....

The Genealogical Institute offers a series of educational materials to teach and instruct the novice as well as advanced researchers, procedures Mr. Pratt has tried and tested to be of great value in family history research. These courses offer “a hands on” curriculum designed to instruct in investigative, deductive reasoning and logical techniques for tracking your family history. Many have found a treasure chest of knowledge when undertaking these courses.

Mr. Pratt has taken the hobby of genealogy and has enhanced it into a science. Heavy on instructions concerning documentation, research procedures, alternative sources and common public records, these courses are valuable tools for the family history researcher. Mr. Pratt has been informed by researchers his material found in his publications are recorded as source validation for such organizations as the Sons of the American Revolution (SAR) and the Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR).

Upon completion of the educational courses from the Genealogical Institute, the graduate is awarded the Master Accreditation of the Genealogical Institute. (M.A.G.I.) Written in easy to read format with detailed explanations concerning various subjects of interest to family history researchers.

Mr. Pratt’s ability in family history research has amazed many experienced researchers. When Mr. Pratt is asked for help concerning their “brick wall” in their family research, his quick wit and logical mind rapid fires instructions and procedures so fast they cannot write the material quickly enough. Little do they realize, this knowledge has been acquired over 40 years of research.

In June of 2000, Mr. Pratt undertook a new and unprecedented task. Outside of Washington, Saint John’s Township, Franklin County, Missouri is an old cemetery called the Johnson-Caldwell Cemetery aka; misnamed the McAllister Cemetery. This cemetery has many pioneer heroes and ancestors of various descendants from that region. Some of the inhabitants were born in the 1750’s and arrived in the Missouri Territory shortly after the 1803 Louisiana Purchase.

Mr. Pratt recorded all the information off of the headstones including every person in the cemetery and researched each individual related to Mr. Pratt or not. 1000 man-hours and two years later, he published the book “JOHNSON-CALDWELL CEMETERY OF FRANKLIN COUNTY, MISSOURI”©.

Obtaining newspapers, legal documents, talking to ancestors and researching various sources for any and all information concerning the history of the cemetery and the inhabitants produced this master text.

What makes this book unique is based on several factors. First, it is the only book to report on each inhabitant, their birth and activities throughout their life until their death, including their ancestors, spouses and children. Second, this book contains a unique index, listing the individual and their father’s name if known. This is extremely helpful when several individuals have the same given name.

Upon examination, professional researchers have hailed this body of work as a masterpiece and a standard in which all future research should be based. No one has ever produced a body of work as unique and professional as this publication.

As the years moved on, Mr. Pratt became concerned about his 40 years of hard research work of various family histories. After a serious heart attack in 2012, Mr. Pratt decided to post his collective bodies of work on a website making them available to all interested researchers without compensation.
